

marked absent

exploring transportation in the Philippines

Traffic jams, air pollution, and inadequate infrastructure for public transport are some of the significant challenges leading to transportation inefficiencies

Davao City experiences a congestion percentage of 66%

transportation inefficiency causes student life disruption as it causes tardiness, absences, and decreased academic performance drives have an average time of 34 minutes and 17 seconds, while the average speed during rush hour is 14 km/h.

JOHNSON

average daily traffic volume smart traffic management systems

These are innovative solutions the Philippines can implement in hopes to reduce traffic congestion. Through the use of AI and various sensors, traffic flow can be managed real-time.